

G. W. and Terps Off For Tourney With Varying Hopes

George Washington, sporting an eight-game winning streak and genuine hopes for the Southern Conference basketball championship, and Maryland, thankful to be in the tournament but hoping for the best, left today for Durham and tomorrow's first-round games.

The Colonials ran their season's record to 16 victories against seven defeats last night with a 69-59 triumph over V. M. I. The G. W. party left this morning in cars while Maryland left via plane in the afternoon. Both will work out in the huge Duke Field House tonight.

G. W. Coach George Garber, although satisfied that G. W. had a fair break in drawing South Carolina in the first round and the winner of William and Mary-Davidson if it gets by the Gamecocks, was a trifle disturbed about playing at 2:15 tomorrow afternoon in the first game. It's just a bad time of day for basket ball, in his opinion.

Forced to Cut Squads.
As each competing squad is limited to 10 players, both Garber and Coach Flucie Stewart of the Terps were forced to drop a few reserves. Garber named Ray Adler, Phil McNiff, Maynard Hattcock, Johnny Moffatt, Bill Cantwell, Eugene Witkin, Dave Shapiro, Len Small, Chet Pietras and Sam Schreiber to his squad.

Maryland, which plays North Carolina in the second game of the matinee program tomorrow, had Johnny Edwards, Lee Brawley, Ron Siegrist, Jack Myers, Spence Wright, Charles Mack, Bernie Smith, Frank Armistead, Dick Taylor and Bob Yordy on its squad.

Tomorrow night's games find favored North Carolina State against its only conference conqueror of the last two seasons, Wake Forest, at 7:30, and William and Mary vs. Davidson in the nightcap. Semifinals are Friday night and the final on Saturday night.

All Colonials in Action.
Garber gave everybody a workout as the Colonials rolled over V. M. I. last night for the second time this season. Although G. W. made only three more field goals than the Keydets, it held a 30-20 halftime lead and was not extended. Maynard Hattcock and Bill Cantwell, playing their last home game, topped the scores with 16 and 13 points.

Tommy O'Keefe, Georgetown's star forward and the District's second leading scorer, was granted another year of eligibility at the Hilltop when McCarter of the EIAA reversed a ruling of two weeks ago.

O'Keefe first was declared ineligible because he was on the squad at Notre Dame in his freshman year. He did not play a game with the Irish, however, and thus will be eligible in his senior year at Georgetown.

Singh Defends Honors In Mat Battle Royal

Nano Singh, the cobra clutch expert, defends his Turner's Arena free-for-all rassing championship tonight. Ten grapplers will be in the ring at one time to start this affair and likely all will gang up on Singh because of questionable tactics he used last time.

Opponents in five man-to-man matches will be determined by the order in which the 10 starters are pinned in the opening scramble. Others booked for action tonight are Marvin Mercer, Wilbur Nead, Dutch Schweigert, Chief Little Wolf, Stanley Novak, Ace Freeman, Joe Kamaroff, Hans Steinko and Bibber McCoy.

UNITED STATES HOCKEY LEAGUE.
Omaha, 5; Tulsa, 2.
Kansas City, 7; Houston, 2.

Flag-Pacing Caruso Bowlers Face Leaders in Total Pins

By Ben McAlwee
Third-place Hutchison's Furniture, which has knocked down more pins than any of the other seven teams in the Major District League, gets a shot at pace-setting Caruso Grocery in a match starting at 7:30 tonight at Rosslyn.

Although leading in total pins, the furniture outfit trails the grocery quint in the flag chase by five games.

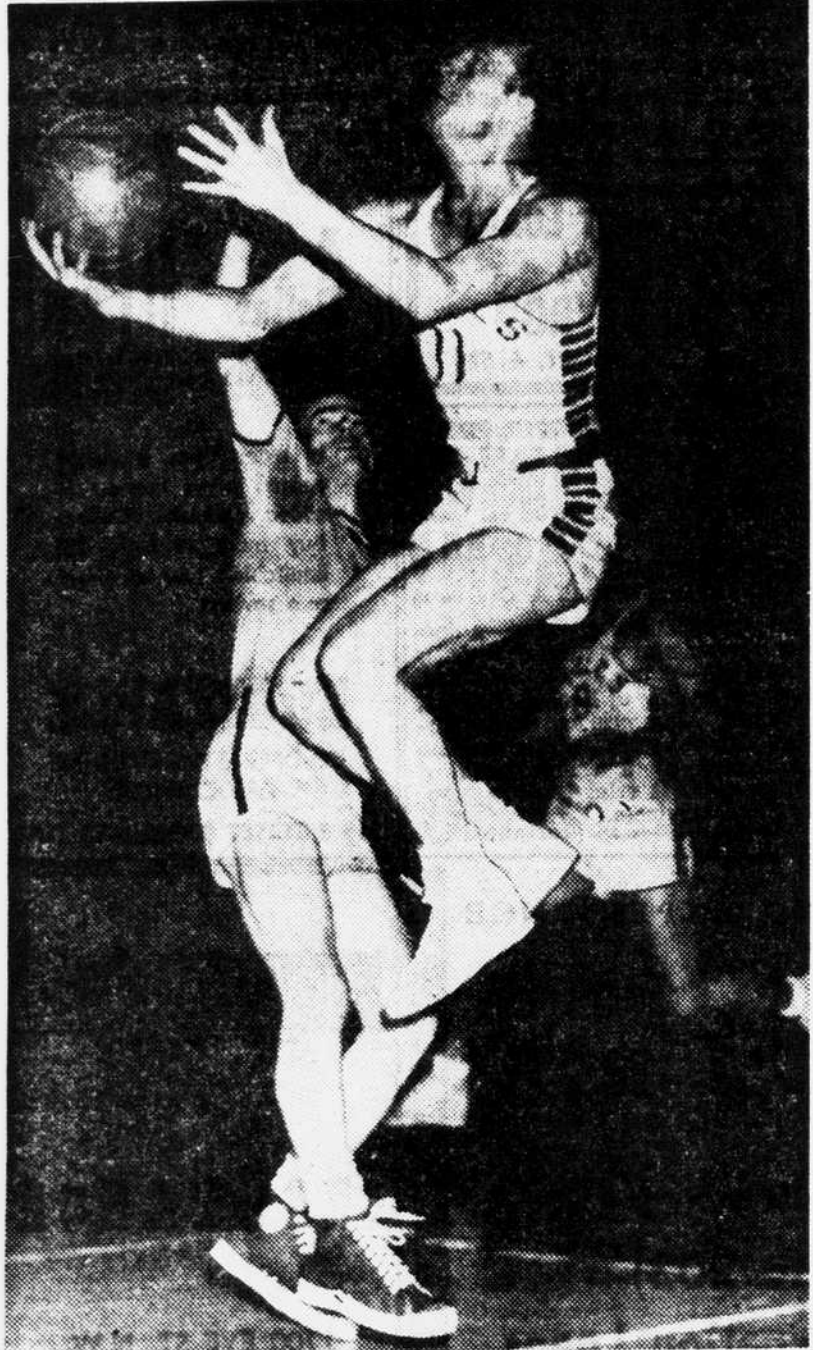

Runner-up Arcade Pontiac, three games behind after being bumped out of first place by Caruso last week, meets a worthy foe in Winchester Packard at Greenway.

Schlitz Beer, deadlocked in third place with Hutchison's, clashes with Mann's Decorators at Hi-Skor. Tom's Auto Service engages H. B. Leary at Ice Palace.

Lorraine Gull, many times champion of the Ladies District League, now has her sights on the individual title in the new Capitol Major circuit.

Holding fourth place with an average of 117-8 for 66 games the famous Hi-Skor team leader tonight will attempt to cut the 54-pin lead of Lillian Carleton, the Brookland Recreation ace, who boasts top mark of 1171-54. Jessie Saevery, Brookland captain is second with 117-32 and Toni Rowe of Fort Davis, third with 117-20. Tonight's team schedule: Hi-Skor at Ice Palace, Hyattsville at King Pin, Rosslyn at Brookland and Fort Davis at Takoma.

In the Minor District League tonight leading Chevy Chase Ice

HIGH-FLYING EAGLE—Here's John Wakefield (11) leaping aloft for a two-pointer in the 84-60 trouncing handed Western Maryland as the Mason-Dixon title basket tourney opened last night at Catholic University. American U's captain and lone senior, who was a ball of fire at the outset of the fray, cooled off later, but his mates carried on in fine style for an impressive victory.

Few Games Remaining For School Quintets

Only a few more isolated games remain in the scholastic basketball season, although title events are still to be played. The Evening Star tourney opens tonight at Ritchie Coliseum and Priory School has its tourney scheduled for Friday and Saturday of next week.

Devitt ends its season Friday against St. Paul's at Merrick Boys' Club, while Longwood visits Gaithersburg. Saturday finds Bladensburg playing Greenbelt at College Park, Prior at Portsmouth, R. I., and Landan at St. Andrews in Middletown, Del.

Priory lost a close one yesterday, bowing, 34-32, to Quantico School in overtime. Bud Zavash, who led the scoring with 15 points, tallied two goals in the overtime for the victory.

St. Albans knocked off its rival Friends, 41-38, as Roger Kingsbury tallied 21 points for the victory.

Other games had Landan winning over Longwood, 57-23; National Training School beating Kendall, 52-44; Mount Rainier whipping Maryland Park, 38-36, and Laurel winning over Greenbelt, 49-45.

W. G. C. C. Names Six To Governing Board
Six vacancies on the Board of Governors at Washington Golf and Country Club have been filled with the re-election of Cornelius H. Doherty, J. Albert Edmonds and Caldwell C. Kendrick, and the naming of Henry W. Branson, James W. Sawyer and Herbert B. Swartwout for the first time.

The board will meet next Monday to elect officers for 1949.

Palace bowls at Fort Davis, Queen Pin at Bethesda Bowling Center, King Pin at Petworth, Greenway at Lucky Strike and Sallers Plumbers against Price Motors at Greenway.

Marie Boyd, in leading Hurley Metals to a sweep over Bratburd Pigs with 132 and 355, was tops in the Washington Ladies' loop. Isabel Routh's 340 sparked Virginians to a 3-0 win from Sheridan Super Market. Face-setting Viki Casanova dropped two tilts to Five Aces, but maintained a two-game lead when second-place Central Valet was beaten, 2-1, by Takoma Gift Shop. Edmonds Optical moved to third place with a 3-0 victory over Hi-Skor.

Standards continued its flashy pinpiling in the National Capital Ladies' loop by whitewashing T. W. I. U., with second high season league score of 556 and 1,616. Betty McIntyre's 149-351, Barbara Martin's 143-346, Margaret Miller's 130-334 were the heaviest wallops. Second-place Gnomes routed the leading ABCD Corp. to move three games behind the pace-setters.

Liquidators, with a sweep over Mariners, spurred to a six-game lead over the tied Drawbacks and Appraisers in the Bureau of Customs League.

Utah, San Francisco, C. C. N. Y. Good Bets For Garden Event

By the Associated Press
NEW YORK, Mar. 2.—Utah, San Francisco and City College of New York looked to be the best bets today to join Kentucky and St. Louis in the national invitation basketball tournament field.

Needing three more teams to complete the eight-team lineup, you probably wouldn't go far wrong in guessing Bradley, Western Kentucky and Loyola of Chicago.

Kentucky, which has announced it will run for both the invitation and NCAA crowns, and St. Louis, defending titlist, are the only definite nominees for the eliminations March 12, 14, 17, 19 at Madison Square Garden.

Asa Bushnell, NIT chairman, said he may have some more announcements today.

Utah, with a 23-6 overall record and currently pacing the Big Six Conference, and San Francisco, eighth in the national rankings with a 21-5 mark, should be outstanding representatives of the distant West.

City College (17-5) right now is the choice for furnishing the necessary "home" flavor to the Garden tournament. But the Beavers must make care of Manhattan tomorrow night. Otherwise Manhattan (17-7) may get the nod.

Bradley (25-5) leaped into high favor with its 35-31 victory Monday night over Oklahoma A. and M., the second-ranked team in the Associated Press poll.

Western Kentucky (25-3), Bowling Green (20-6) and Loyola of Chicago (21-5) also have shown tournament class.

If this is the approximate lineup on the invitation you can expect something like this in the NCAA now that the field is narrowing:

First district—Yale.
Second—Villanova, Columbia or Duquesne, probably Villanova.

Third—Kentucky, already invited and accepted.
Fourth—Illinois or Minnesota, whichever survives the torrid Western Conference race.

Fifth—Oklahoma A. and M.
Sixth—The winner of the Southwest Conference scramble among Arkansas, Baylor and Rice. Arizona in the picture.

Seventh—Wyoming or Denver. Utah may prefer this one if it wins the Big Six.
Eighth—The Pacific Coast Conference winner, either Oregon State in the North or Southern California and U. C. L. A. scrapping in the South. A playoff will decide.

Old Rockport's Owner Loses 15 Horses in Fire

By the Associated Press
LEXINGTON, Ky., Mar. 2.—Fifteen thoroughbreds, mostly weanlings and unraced 2-year-olds, died early today in a fire that destroyed a 26-stall training barn at Clifford Moores' Walnut Springs farm near here. Walter Jones, farm manager, estimated damage at $200,000.

The flames were out of control when they were discovered about midnight by a Negro groom. Farm hands were unable to save any of the horses or equipment in the 200-foot barn.

Nine weanlings, four 2-year-olds and two broodmares were listed as lost in the fire in addition to a lead pony.

Thomas Bates, Negro groom, who lives nearby, said he heard an explosion, ran to the barn but was unable to get inside. The fire apparently had been burning some time, he added.

Jones said he thought the fire might have been caused by defective wiring. The explosion, he added, probably came from limon stored in the barn.

Moores, a Texas oil man, is owner of Old Rockport, a prominent nominee for the Kentucky Derby since his surprise victory in the recent $100,000 Santa Anita Derby. Another of his horses, Bold Gallant, won the Kentucky Jockey Club Stakes at Churchill Downs in 1947. Neither horse was quartered at the farm.

Seven Tank Records Hung Up by Stack

By the Associated Press
NEW HAVEN, Conn., Mar. 2.—Olympic Backstroke Champion Allen Stack churned 890 yards through the 20-yard Payne Whitney gymnasium pool at Yale University yesterday and established seven American swimming records.

Four of the new records were American marks while three others were American noteworthy records. Five of the records smashed were held by Adolph Kiefer and one by Jack Weeden of Stanford U. The seventh was at 500 meters where there has been no previous record.

The former Yale star was timed in 3:24.0 at the 300-yard mark, smashing Kiefer's old noteworthy record of 3:25.6. Another noteworthy record went at 400 yards when Stack's 4:36.4 sliced nearly 10 seconds off Kiefer's previous record of 4:46.3. The third noteworthy fall at the end of the line when Stack's 10:45.0 bettered Kiefer's old record of 11:01.8 by 16 and eight-tenths seconds.

American records fell at 400 meters, 440 yards and 500 yards in addition to the newly created 500 meter record.
Stack's 5:02.8 at 400 meters shattered Kiefer's old mark of 5:10.09 while his 5:05.0 at 440 yards cracked Kiefer's 5:12.6. Stack hit the 500-yard mark in 5:49.9, smashing the record of 6:08.8 which was held by Weeden.

Accompanied Youngsters To See Sports Show Free

A special free performance for 4,000 children, guests of the Children's Museum of Washington, will be given Saturday morning at 9:30 o'clock at the second annual Washington Sportsmen's and Outdoors Show in the National Guard Armory.

Adult supervision for each group of 15 children will be required. Full particulars may be obtained by inquiry at the Children's Museum headquarters, 1607 Eye street N.W. No children will be admitted without grown escorts.
Regular performances of the sportsmen's show will start at 1 p.m. Saturday, continuing through Sunday, March 13.

23 Players Unsigned As Majors Move Into 2d Day of Training

By the Associated Press
Major league baseball teams entered the second day of their 1949 spring training sessions today with at least 23 players still dickering for more money.

The 16 teams began preparing for the 1949 grind yesterday with light workouts, pepper games and bull sessions.

Cleveland's world champion Indians, operating out of Tucson, Ariz., permitted four of their dissatisfied athletes, Pitchers Gene Bearden, Will Hefey and Infielders Joe Gordon and Roberto Avila, to work out. Hurler Bob Lemon, also a holdout, was not in camp.

The National League champion Boston Braves, training at Bradenton, Fla., listed five holdouts, Pitchers Warren Spahn, Clyde Shoun, Catcher Phil Masi, Infielder Ed Stanky and Outfielder Jeff Heath.

Other holdouts include First Baseman Les Fleming, Pittsburgh; Outfielder Stan Spence, Boston Red Sox; Pitcher Vic Raschi and Infielder Bobby Brown, New York Yankees; Outfielder Coaker Triplett, Philadelphia Athletics; Second Baseman Jerry Priddy and Outfielder Pete Layden, St. Louis Browns; Pitcher Schoolboy Rowe, Catcher Ardy Seminick, and Infielder Buddy Blatner, Philadelphia Phillies; Don Kolloway, Chicago White Sox.

Fourteen players came to terms yesterday. Pittsburgh signed Infielder Jack Tobin, Pitcher Vic Lombardi and Outfielder-First Baseman Walt Judnich. The Red Sox satisfied Outfielder Dom Di Maggio with a $35,000 contract. Lefty Tommy Byrne agreed to Yankee terms.

The Athletics signed Pitchers Phil Marchildon, Bobby Schantz and Outfielder Taft Wright. The Browns pleased Infielder Andy Anderson and Pitcher Cliff Fanning. Pitcher Robin Roberts signed with the Phils, Hurler Howie Pollet with the Cards, Infielder Jimmy Bloodworth with the Reds and Outfielder Peanuts Lowrey with the Cubs.

Some of the chilliest weather in two months greeted the 10 teams making Florida their headquarters.

The West Coast of the Gator State, where six teams are training, experienced the first cold spell since New Year's Day with temperatures ranging from 47-51 degrees.

In contrast, warm weather and sunny skies welcomed the Indians and the New York Giants, out West. The Giants, at Phoenix, went through a three-hour workout with Manager Leo Durocher batting to the infield and directing a hitting drill.

On the Pacific Coast the Chicago White Sox, at Pasadena, Calif., went through their first workout under their new leader, Jack Onslow. Jolly Cholly Grimm gave his Chicago Cubs' pitchers a hard time, chasing fungoes as well as pitching batting practice.

The St. Louis Browns, training at Burbank, Calif., plan to start full scale activities today. The Pirates, at San Bernardino, Calif., expect to hold one drill a day until March 12 when they face the Cubs in their first Grapefruit League game.
